

No. 1

It is recommended that:

(a) The Deputy Director for Intelligence chair an ad hoc committee of senior representatives of the production and collection components of CIA to develop a firm, authoritative CIA position with respect to the proper content of DCID No. 1/2, "Comprehensive National Intelligence Objectives," and DCID No. 1/3, "Priority National Intelligence Objectives."

(b) This committee prepare a revision of DCID No. 1/3, for proposal by CIA to USIB, which will contain a short list of specific, unequivocal Objectives defined as those questions upon which our national survival depends.

(c) The Committee prepare such a revision of DCID No. 1/2, for proposal by CIA to USIB, as will appropriately cover other subjects of proper concern to intelligence which do not affect our national survival.

No. 2

It is recommended that:

The Agency position include, for presentation to USIB, proposals that USIB rescind its requirement for a strict annual schedule for revising DCID No. 1/3 and that USIB abolish the quarterly supplements to DCID No. 1/3 as serving no necessary or even useful purpose.

No. 3

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Plans

a. Direct the Chief of the FI Staff to prepare and coordinate within CIA a draft revision of DCID No. 5/5 suitable for proposal to USIB by its CIA member, to the end that the IPC can be made into a satisfactory mechanism for stating the needs of the community for clandestine collection by CIA.

b. Direct the Chief of the FI Staff, as Chairman of the IPC, to revise IPC procedures in ways which will make them responsive to the instructions of the new DCID and the needs of the Clandestine Services.

c. Direct the assignment of sufficient manpower to the IPC secretariat to make possible the early completion of the IPC List and to ensure that it is thenceforth kept complete, accurate, and current, with due regard to balance among targets and to exclusion of redundancies between clandestine and other systems of collection, and suspend all other normal operations of the Clandestine Services' requirements system, except the development of requirements tailored to known reporting sources, until this is accomplished.

No. 4

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence instruct the Collection Guidance Staff to draft, and coordinate with all elements of CIA which produce clandestine collection requirements, a notice for Agency publications which:

- a. Defines the function and responsibilities of the CIA member of the IPC.
- b. Defines the function and scope of the IPC List and directs Agency originators of requirements to consult and cite it in formulating their needs for clandestine collection.

No. 5

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Plans direct the chief of the FI Staff to reject ad hoc requirements for collection which do not clearly satisfy the criteria for clandestine collection established by USIB in DCID No. 5/5; namely, that such requirements necessitate clandestine collection and exclude subjects that can normally be covered by other methods.

No. 6

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence

a. Direct the Chief, Collection Guidance Staff, to revise Form 986.

b. Take measures to ensure that Form 986, as revised, is correctly and consistently used by all CIA writers of collection requirements.

c. Issue a notice instructing analysts and their supervisors on the preparation of requirements.

No. 7

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence direct the Chief of the Collection Guidance Staff to develop, in collaboration with requirements officers of the Clandestine Services and the [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED], a means whereby the levying of new requirements upon CIA collectors by CIA analysts is preceded by an inquiry as to the feasibility of satisfying such a requirement with current assets, to the end that formal ad hoc requirements be limited to those of immediate practical value as collection guidance.

25X1A

No. 8

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, issue a statement describing the mission and functions of the Collection Guidance Staff in identical terms for each directorate.

No. 9

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Plans, arrange for the regular exchange of officers between the Requirements and Evaluation Branch of the Intelligence Group of the Foreign Intelligence Staff and the Human Resources Group of the Collection Guidance Staff.

No. 10

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, issue a notice explaining the status and use of the CIRL.

No. 11

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, direct the preparation for each issue of the CIRL of a preface identifying the most important needs listed therein.

No. 12

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence direct the Director of Current Intelligence to assume responsibility for the regular production of background statements for the CIRL.

No. 13

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, direct the preparation and implementation of a program for the production and periodic revision of comprehensive guides on selected intelligence subjects.

No. 14

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence direct the preparation, on a trial basis, of a collection guidance program for the Domestic Contact Service.

No. 15

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Plans direct the Chief, FI Staff, to make available to the Collection Guidance Staff, in sanitized form, all intelligence gaps and new collection guidance which it derives from its own reporting assessments.

No. 16

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence provide for the members of the SIGINT Group of the Collection Guidance Staff such technical training and access as will facilitate their mission of fostering communications between CIA intelligence analysts and community COMINT collection specialists.

No. 17

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Plans, ensure that duplication between COMINT and human-source requirements on the Free World is reduced to the necessary minimum.

No. 18

It is recommended that:

The CIA SIGINT officer, in order to facilitate intelligence evaluations of the product of CIA and third-party COMINT operations, discuss with NSA the possibility of providing listings of all intercepts from such operations which are not at present available to CIA analysts.

No. 19

It is recommended that:

The CIA SIGINT officer prepare, for submission to the USIB through appropriate channels, a proposal for the identification of and separate processing of the ELINT product of air training missions of the unified and specified commands.

No. 20

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology, direct the Collection Guidance Staff to advise the CIA members of the COMOR SIGINT Working Group and of the COMOR on coordination of CIA requirements in connection with SIGINT and multi-sensor national reconnaissance operations.

No. 21

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Science and Technology:

a. Direct those officers responsible for preparing evaluations of CIA and third-party ELINT operations to include discussions of unsolved intelligence problems and suggestions for future targeting in such evaluations.

b. Direct the Chief, Office of Scientific Intelligence and the Chief, Foreign Missile and Space Analysis Center to prepare and issue periodic collection support memoranda as guidance for CIA and third-party ELINT operations.

No. 22

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Science and Technology direct the arrangement of periodic conferences between weapon-systems analysts and ELINT tasking officers for the purpose of improving collection guidance and operational support.

No. 23

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence formulate and coordinate a CIA position on requirements for overhead reconnaissance in such a way as to identify those disagreements which may require resolution by higher authority.

No. 24

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence and the Deputy Director for Science and Technology instruct the chiefs of their substantive divisions to assume the responsibilities described above.

No. 25

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence and the Deputy Director for Science and Technology instruct the directors of their substantive offices to assume the responsibilities outlined above

No. 26

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence furnish all necessary support to the Collection Guidance Staff in its efforts to:

- a. Mitigate the deleterious effects of the Information Explosion that are already being felt.
- b. Apply strict selective criteria to all foreign intelligence requirements in order to prevent the Information Explosion from getting completely out of hand.
- c. Introduce progressively more order and system into human-source requirements.

No. 27

It is recommended that:

The Deputy Director for Intelligence, in coordination with the Deputy Director for Science and Technology and the Deputy Director for Plans, arrange briefings on the collection guidance system for analysts in the Agency's intelligence production offices.